Notes: Incredible blueberry essence on the nose of this Syrah. The pallet continues to unfold offering hints of dark chocolate and dusty earth. It evolves into the mid-palate with plums, black fruits and smoky, leathery tannins that move into a velvety smooth finish. This is an elegant and full-bodied Syrah. Tight right now so it will need a good hour or two in a decanter and has years of ageing potential if you can wait that long...100% Syrah.

Fantastic! Another terrific value from Cameron Hughes. I'm becoming a big fan of these wines. This is a full wine, with complex fruit flavors including plum and cherry. Great chocolate finish. Easy to drink and definitely a new favorite for me. Very versatile wine. Highly recommended, if you can find it (tasted April 2007)
