

★★★★★ (92) Cameron Hughes
Lot 71 Alexander Valley Cabernet
Sauvignon 2004 (California).

In the glass, the wine is a bright, deep ruby all the way to the edge; the nose exhibits an interesting mix of baked black cherry, with spice notes; solid weight and texture on the palate is supported with plenty of black, ripe fruit; the acid is well-balanced and the finish is quite lengthy.